“ My Big Brother Peter,

I remember the day we all went to the train station to see Peter off to the war (The Korean War).

I was 6 years old and he picked me up, gave me a big hug, and made me promise not to cut my hair.

After more than two years, Peter came home. He walked into Mom's Kitchen, I hid under the kitchen table, Peter came looking for me, and again picked me up, and gave me a big hug and checked out my very long hair. I was so happy he came home safely. I missed him so much.

My Brother Peter was a loving son, husband, father and brother and he will be deeply missed, but never forgotten.

“ Our condolence to all of Peter's family. He was one of a kind cousin and he was names after my Dad, Peter, his mother's baby blued brother. We spent many great times at Critics with ice cream treats, and especially at Easter Time. We also had many meals with him at the Forum Restaurant. May you rest in peace!! Love your cousins,
