“ Where do I start telling you about my Aunt violet and Uncle Louie!! Words cannot express what I feel in my heart for these two great people. My dad, Fred was Aunt Violets older brother. Every Sunday Dad and I drove from New Jersey to Nana and Pop Pops house. Those were the days of family closeness. Everyone was welcome at the BENNER PLACE ON Passes hill!! After the passing of their Mom and Dad, Aunt Violet and my Dad remained closer than ever. She became my second Mother and most of all my friend. I can remember Uncle Louie greeting tax payers at their kitchen table while Aunt Violet visited with her big brother. I find peace in knowing the Benner family is all together again. We are fortunate enough to hold the memories they gave us close to our hearts to never be forgotten but to be cherished. Until we meet again,

“ Our sincere sympathy and prayers for my Aunt Violet's entire family as you go forward. She was a very special lady who I was blessed to have as my Aunt. For me she left a legacy of smiles. I know my mom Kathryn loved her. We all did. Rest well sweet Aunt Violet. Hugs to my cousins. Dianne & John Lexo

“ Aunt Violet, you will be missed. I always enjoyed our phone conversations and asking you questions about the Benner family, "who was my dad's favorite sibling, who shared a bedroom growing up, who was your favorite sibling, how did you all manage to change the sheets on all those beds?" I have so many more questions that will never be answered. Looking at your picture I can still hear your voice and laughter. You always had a nice word to say about everyone. We always ended our phone conversations with, "I love you". I do love you and am thankful for all the wonderful memories I have of you.

“ Aunt Violet you were my favorite Aunt on the Benner side of my family. I am just so sorry that our family wasn't closer. I remember coming to your house when I was younger and the big yard you had. I can still see the dog you had out back (I dont remember what his name was) but he was always standing outside the dog or I believe sometime on top of it. I wish I had spent more time with you. You will surely be missed.

“ Aunt Violet was a lovely lady with a gentle spirit and a sweet smile. I loved seeing her and Uncle Louie when they would come visit my parents. I remember one day they came to visit me when my parents were in Florida. I was so happy to see them. After I moved Aunt Violet and I exchanged quite a few letters. It was always nice to hear from her. The older I get the more I realize how blessed I am to have such a wonderful family. We will all miss Aunt Violet!

“ Aunt Violet, you know how much you meant to me! I am lucky to have been able to spend time with you each summer. Your memory was remarkable, and you never even groaned when I asked you to tell me something over and over. I loved our two trips together, and all our breakfasts together. It is so strange (and lonely) to think that I won't have that any more. I will miss you, but will take comfort in the fact that you were in my life, and remain in my heart!
